SUFFRAGE

Opponents and Advocates Argue Question Before House Committee

CLEVELAND WOMEN ACT

Miss Price Opposes Proposed Bill for Presidential Suffrage to Ohio Women While Mrs. Upton Favors Its Passage—State Auditor Aids Special Taxation Committee.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Columbus, Jan. 23.—Advocates and opponents of the bill to grant by statute, the right of presidential suffrage to women of Ohio appeared before the committee on elections in the house of representatives this morning.

Miss Lucy Price of Cleveland was selected by the anti-suffragists to present the argument against the bill while Mrs. Harriet Taylor Upton of Warren, president of the Ohio Woman's Suffrage Association and other officers of the association were present to defend the bill.

The measure before the committee for consideration was the bill of Representative James A. Reynolds, Democrat, of Cleveland, a similar bill proposed by Representative Platt, Republican, of Ashland, is before the committee on federal relations.

While the suffrage organizations have been on the ground since the legislature opened advocating the extension of partial suffrage to women, the association of women opposed to suffrage, headed by Mrs. Henry Talbot of Dayton, appeared here yesterday and has been canvassing every member of the general assembly asking them to defeat the suffrage proposals.

So confident are officials of the Ohio Woman's Suffrage association that the present general assembly will extend the right of Presidential suffrage to women that they may decide not to bother the legislative committees having the suffrage bills under consideration with arguments for suffrage. Mrs. Harriet Taylor Upton, president of the suffrage association said today at the conclusion of the first hearing on the suffrage bill before the elections committee of the house at which only anti-suffragists spoke.

With both major political parties pledged to suffrage and as a result of a canvass made of the membership of the two houses the suffrage leaders were confident today of victory.

The special joint committee on taxation received State Auditor Donahy's suggestions as to features to be incorporated in a new tax law and has asked A. B. Peckenpaugh of the state tax commission to appear before the committee tomorrow.

Among important recommendations made in Donahy's suggestions were the abolition of the ward assessors and the listing of personal property with the township clerks, village clerks, city auditors and county auditors in county seats towns, requiring publication of all tax returns, listing of all property invested in non-taxable securities, and exempted property, requirement that true amount of consideration be stated in all transfers of real property, raising of exemption on household goods from $100 to $300, that mortgages be taxed as interest in real estate, and requirement that all taxes must be paid at the time fixed by statute and that taxpayers be prohibited from bringing suit to enjoin collection of taxes but be allowed to sue for refunding them after they are paid.

John A. Bliss, chief deputy in the state auditor's office gave it as his opinion that the board of complaints should be replaced by a board of review composed of the county treasurer, county prosecutor and perhaps the county clerk.

The administration's agricultural bill to make the present secretary of the state board of agriculture the secretary of agriculture and give him additional powers was introduced by Representative Brage of Erie county. The bill also provides of the establishment of a state bureau of markets and the creation of an agricultural council. It holds the present agricultural board intact but places it in an advisory capacity. At the first hearing on the initiated bill to exclude private liability insurance companies from competition with the state last night Wallace D. Yaple, chairman of the state industrial commission, former Senator William Green, author of the workmen's compensation law, and T. J. Donnelly, secretary of the Ohio Federation of Labor spoke for the bill and F. J. O'Neill of New York; William J. Hunkin of Cleveland; W. B. Kane of Hamilton and Henry T. Hunt of Cincinnati opposed the measure.

The senate confirmed the appointment of Judge Oliver H. Hughes, of Highland county as a member of the state public utilities commission. The appointment was sent to the senate today by Governor Cox.

A joint resolution providing that the proposition of granting Ohio women suffrage be submitted to the voters again was introduced in the senate by Senator J. E. Holden, of Warren.

Western Senators Want Navy Dept. to Change Policy

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Washington, Jan. 23.—The administration legislative program today was threatened with partial disruption as a result of the declaration of a group of western senators to President Wilson that they believed no action could be secured on the general leasing and waterpower bills unless the navy department reduces its opposition to the leasing bill amendment to relieve private operation on oil lands in naval reserves. The senate steering committee today continued its meetings in an effort to plan speedy handling of administration measures according to the wishes of President Wilson, who has determined to make frequent trips to the capitol in an effort to expedite legislation.

Order Outposts Withdrawn By General Pershing

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Washington, Jan. 23.—Withdrawal of the outposts of General Pershing's force in Mexico has been ordered by the war department with the approval of President Wilson. There were intimations today that as soon as the outposts are brought in the movement of the main body of troops toward the border will be begun.

No date for sending of Ambassador Fletcher to the Mexican capital has been set, it was stated officially today. The question of lifting the embargo on the exportation of arms into Mexico is being considered but no decision has been reached because of the complexity of the problem. The position of the government, it was learned, is that the embargo will be lifted as soon as the administration can be sure that the arms will go to the proper authorities.

Druggists Would Make The Federal Dope Law Tighter.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Cincinnati, Jan. 23.—A delegation of Cincinnati druggists headed by Charles Ehlers left today for Columbus to attend the semi-annual meeting of the Ohio State Pharmaceutical association. ## USED FIST ON MAN WHO WIPED HANDS ON AMERICAN FLAG

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) New York, Jan. 23.—Signal Quartermaster L. H. Luksich, attached to the recruiting office of the United States coast guard, who on January 3 while on duty at the battery, knocked down a man for wiping his muddy hands on the American flag displayed at a recruiting station, has been officially commended by treasury department officials. Luksich is a naturalized citizen born in Austria. Official mention of the incident was made to the war department by Captain G. L. Carden, recruiting officer in charge, who also on receiving a report on the matter from Luksich, personally commended him for his prompt action in resenting an insult to the national colors. A report of the incident published at the time was printed all over the United States and was the subject of much comment. Several national patriotic societies have taken note of the incident and letters of commendation have been addressed to the treasury department and to Luksich. A letter of commendation signed by A. J. Peters, assistant secretary of the treasury was made public here today.

Press Is Skeptical About Teutonic Reception of President's Peace Plans

FORMULA IS ACCEPTABLE

Scheme Would Require New Type of Man, Journal Says, and Human Nature Would Have to be Changed—English Papers Declare it a Splendid Policy, Nobly Expressed.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Paris, Jan. 23.—President Wilson's address to the senate is printed in full in the most prominent place by all the morning papers and comment as a whole is sympathetic but skeptical. The Petit Parisien says:

"It seems that President Wilson, as in his previous note, has mistakenly placed the states attacked and the aggressors on the same footing, when the distinction was an easy one which he was in conscience bound to make. With that stipulation we can only subscribe to the formula which the president sets forth as a basis of future peace. None of his conceptions can offend us. They are ours. They were ours long before 1917. We certainly will not oppose them. It gives us only pleasure to see these plans for liberty and justice eloquently upheld by Mr. Wilson. But what will Germany and Austria say?"

The Matin says: "In entire agreement with President Wilson as to the principles enunciated by him, we nevertheless shall believe, until more fully informed, that there is a portion of humanity upon which these principles must be imposed by force; for it would be erroneous to suppose they could be led to accept them from conviction."

The Journal says: "Mr. Wilson is obsessed with the idea of inaugurating for the world a golden age of universal brotherhood. His whole message is dominated by the noble chimera, and that must be invoked as an excuse in order to attenuate the impression which this extraordinary manifesto cannot fail to make on the allied countries."

"Mr. Wilson's scheme is simplicity itself, except that it requires a new type of man. Since the world has been the world, human passions have caused conflicts to arise in every stage of its organization; in families, tribes, nations, groups of nations. Does Mr. Wilson intend to change human nature?"

Gustav Herve, writes in the Victoire:

"What a pity it is this mastery page of social philosophy is marred and almost disfigured by these three little words: 'Peace without victory'."

A PLENDID POLICY.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) London, Jan. 23.—The Manchester Guardian commenting on President Wilson's speech to the senate calls it "a splendid policy, nobly expressed."

The speech in form was addressed to the senate but it equally concerns ourselves and our adversaries in the war. The President has no intention of taking any part in the actual negotiations of peace that he leaves wholly to the belligerents. He simply comes forward now to state in unmistakable terms, both for his own people and for the other people of the world, every one of whom is directly concerned, what kind of peace it is which he will consent to call upon his countrymen to approve and sustain.

After quoting the chief points in the President's speech, in regard to the condition on which peace must be based, the Guardian continues: "It is a splendid policy, nobly expressed. How will it be received by the peoples everywhere we cannot doubt joyfully; by men of good will and enlightenment everywhere not less joyfully and with a clear perception that this is no vision of Utopia but a well thought out and justly framed scheme of a man in a great position and versed in great affairs."

Asking how the belligerents will regard it the paper thinks its principle and phrases will be hardly palatable to autocratic rulers or easily reconciled to their traditions and methods of government. "But yet, if the people hear them gladly, perhaps the government also may find it wise to find in them a path of safety. As for ourselves they are our terms, or if they are not they ought to be and the mass of the nations will do well to see that their rulers render to them every possible favor and support."

Referring to the President's "nobly concluding words," the Guardian says: "These are words which will find an echo in many hearts and words are sometimes deeds."

MERGE STEEL COMPANIES.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Cincinnati, Jan. 23.—Plans for reorganization and reincorporation of the American Rolling Mill company were announced today. A feature is the fact that the proposed merger with the Columbus Iron and Steel company will be brought about and the capital stock of the new American Rolling Mill company will be increased from its present total of $8,800,000 to $21,500,000.

GERMANS STILL ARE CONFIDENT OF ULTIMATE VICTORY

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) London, Jan. 23.—Confidence in the victory of the central powers was expressed by speakers at a dinner given in Berlin to the presidents of the Teutonic powers parliaments, according to a Berlin dispatch to Reuters by way of Amsterdam. Chancellor von Bethmann Hollweg and several of his colleagues were present at the dinner. Dr. Karl Helfferich, German secretary of the interior, referring to the entente's refusal of the peace offer, said:

"Our enemies must learn to understand that among us there is no military caste but a great national army which, despite all, will hold on and be victorious by virtue of the divine right of existence of our people and their inexhaustible strength and readiness for sacrifices."

Dr. J. Sylvester, president of the Austrian lower house, said: "The peace message which sprang forth from the idea that the strong man must yield was useless. In the coming last fight, which will be exceedingly hard, sanguinary and full of sacrifices, he will be faithful to our heroic sons at the front."

PRESIDENT OF NEW HAMPSHIRE COLLEGE IS DEAD

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Durham, N. H., Jan. 23.—Edward Thomson Fairchild, president of New Hampshire college, died today. He had been ill for several weeks.

Three Score Are Killed in Blast At Shell Factory.

London, Jan. 23.—The casualties to date in last Friday night's explosion were officially announced today to comprise 69 killed, 72 seriously injured and 328 slightly injured. This, it is stated, is believed to compose the complete list.

TEUTONS CLING TO NEW LINES IN DOBRUDJA

A new development in the Rumanian campaign was revealed in today's German official statement which reports a Bulgarian movement northward in Dobrudja across the southern estuary of the Danube. The crossing was effected near Tulitza, 38 miles southeast of Galatz, and places the Bulgarians apparently on one of the large islands which stud the course of the river near its mouth.

The Teutonic advance is thus carried nearer the Bessarabian boundary, which here is formed by the northern estuary of the Danube. It remains to be developed whether the Bulgarian move is the prelude to an effort to turn the Russian left flank by completing the crossing of the stream at this far easterly point. In any event it gives Field Marshal von Mackensen a firm hold on the Danube near its mouth, the only stretch where he had not already complete control of the river.

Otherwise the operations on the various fighting fronts have been mostly raiding enterprises.

SENATE

Asked to Devote Full Week to Discussion of World Peace Policy

STONE OPPOSES THE PLAN

Senator Cummins of Iowa, Is Author of Resolution Which Will be Discussed Fully Tomorrow—President Asked Frank Expression of Opinion For Guidance in Matter.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Washington, Jan. 23.—Senator Cummins of Iowa, submitted a resolution to the senate today which would devote the senate beginning next Monday to a full and free discussion of the president's world peace policy and expressed in his message of yesterday. All other business would be excluded until every senator had an opportunity to speak not more than an hour. Chairman Stone, of the foreign relations committee objected to immediate consideration and action was deferred until tomorrow.

The resolution cited that inasmuch as the president's address called for no official legislative action and that the president had invited free and frank expression of opinion for guidance in a matter involving the integrity of the nation and peace of the world, it was the duty of the senate to thoroughly consider the proposals and to advise the president regarding them.

"In the present pressure of public business," said Senator Stone, "I shall have to object to setting aside a whole week, for that's what it would take, merely to hear speeches or opinions regarding the president's address made yesterday. Such a thing is wholly out of the question at this time."

Senator Cummins insisted that his resolution has a right to lie over for a day without reference and said he would object to its going to the committee. Senator Stone then withdrew his motion and the question will come up tomorrow and probably will precipitate general debate of all issues involved.

Congress, recovering somewhat from their bewildered amazement of yesterday set themselves today deliberately and with varying emotions to consideration of President Wilson's notable address to the senate submitting the results of his moves for peace in Europe and outlining the conditions under which he believes the United States would enter a world league for permanent peace.

While the president is looking to Europe with the most profound interest in the effect his pronouncement may have upon the governments and peoples of the warring nations, he awaits with equal eagerness the verdict to be given by the American public after mature deliberation upon the course he has championed before the world.

Bitter criticism from Europe and denunciation of the American president for what will be called attempting to prescribe the terms upon which the great powers at war shall lay down their arms is expected. Nevertheless, the administration is confident that eventually substantial good will come of Mr. Wilson's unprecedented course. It is pointed out that he did not mean to imply that the American government would throw any obstacles in the way of any terms of peace the nations at war might agree upon, but merely expressed the opinion that no peace could endure that was not "made secure by the organized major force of mankind," and stated the conditions upon which the United States would feel free to take part in that great enterprise.

President Wilson A Lobbyist Says Senator Jones.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Washington, Jan. 23.—President Wilson's plan to visit the capitol frequently, urging action on his legislation program, was attacked today by Senator Jones, republican, who declared it indicated a course of "systematic lobbying" by the president.

Senator Jones said he did not wish to introduce any resolution at this time although he thought the matter should invite "the careful consideration" of the senate. He spoke he said, "in view of the notice in the newspapers this morning that the chief executive of our country proposes to carry on a systematic and continued system of lobbying in connection with legislation now pending before the senate."

President Wilson now sees no prospect for an extra session of congress. He told callers today that he planned to go to the capitol frequently to cooperate with Senators and Representatives in speeding up legislation.

Senator Kern at the suggestion of the steering committee called a caucus for Thursday night to pass on a tentative program which includes railroad labor legislation, a corrupt practices bill and the Webb bill to permit domestic corporations to maintain foreign selling agencies. What bills the committee proposes to hold up have not been disclosed.

Internal Crisis Confronts Japanese Want New Cabinet

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Tokyo, Jan. 23.—Japan is confronted with an international political crisis. The opposition to the administration of Count Terauchi has opened a vigorous campaign on the ground that the Terauchi non-partisan cabinet was formed in violation of the spirit of the constitution. The constitutional party, which has a majority in the house of peers and is under the leadership of Viscount Kato, former minister of foreign affairs, has joined hands with the constitutionalist group in the lower house for war against the premier.

The battle will be fought out in the diet, which will reconvene today. Count Terauchi and Viscount Kato, foreign minister will deliver addresses in defense of the administration. The press expects the outcome of the crisis to be dissolution and a new election.

Field Marshal Count Terauchi took office in October 1916. The emperor's action in summoning him to form a cabinet was a surprise both in Japan and abroad and was vigorously criticized by the Japanese political leaders who contended that the new premier did not command public support.

Count Terauchi was formerly governor of Korea and is supposed to represent the radical militarist faction in Japan.

SUPREME COURT WILL GET RECORD OF INTEREST CASE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Columbus, Jan. 23.—The supreme court today allowed the motion directing the court of appeals to certify its record to the supreme court in the case of the Franklin National bank against the city of Newark. In this case the bank seeks to reverse the judgment of the court of appeals allowing the city of Newark approximately $1,000 in interest on water works bonds which the bank claims it held merely as an accommodation, with the understanding that no interest was to be paid.

The question involved in the motion decided by the supreme court, was considered of enough importance to the public to be entitled to a hearing and final determination by that tribunal. The sum of $300,000 had been divided amongst the banks The First National, Licking County Bank, Newark Trust Company and the Franklin National each receiving an equal share of the amount which had been received from the sale of waterworks bonds, and could not be used by the city because of a pending injunction.

The banks claim it was understood that no interest was to be paid, but the court of appeals held that the city was entitled to interest, and the banks should repay the profits earned upon the money.

The Franklin Bank took the matter into court and made a test case but all the other banks will be interested in the final outcome of the litigation.

The motion was argued to the Supreme Court on January 4. The attorneys appear as follows: Kibler & Kibler, Carl Norpell, Fitzgibbon, Montgomery & Black for the bank; Ralph Norpell, City Solicitor, and Roderic Jones for the city.

WORKINGS

Of Stock Exchange Explained by President Noble Before "Leak" Probers

WHO MADE THE PROFITS?

Is One of the Questions the Committee Seeks to Answer—Names of Brokers and Operations on Exchange During the Week of December 18 Are Other Questions.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) New York, Jan. 23.—The "leak" investigation was resumed by the house rules committee at the customs house here today with H. C. S. Noble, president of the New York stock exchange as the first witness. Mr. Noble was called as explained by Sherman L. Whipple, counsel for the committee to detail the workings of the stock exchange and to aid in determining the "possibility under its rules of engineering deals for large profits."

In a brief opening statement of the purpose of the "leak" inquiry Whipple made it plain that extraneous matters, such as general investigation of the stock exchange, will have no place in the inquiry at present. The investigation, according to the plan, Whipple, outlined, will seek to determine first of all, three things:

What were the activities on the exchange during the week of Dec. 18, when the "leak" on President Wilson's peace note is said to have occurred, and the possibilities for causing losses.

Who are the brokers responsible for the transaction during the period.

Who made the profits. The second inquiry, Whipple said, should extend both to profits and losses.

"After that," he said, "the committee may feel that it is in a position where it may intelligently inquire about those who profited, and it seems likely that those who profited may be those who obtained advance information."

The entire committee was present but less than a dozen spectators were in the room, marking a strange contrast to the Washington hearing. The familiar face of Thomas W. Lawson also was missing.

The arrangements were those of a court room. Whipple sat at one end of the counsel table and the witness chair was at the other. Whipple's first action on entering the room was to discard a large easy leather chair which had been provided for him and replace it with a small wooden one. Committeemen smiled and made whispered comment about "stripping the deck" for action.

Then he briefly outlined the events leading up to the inauguration of the inquiry and outlined the scope it probably would take. Announcing that Mr. Noble would be the first witness, he said, among other things, that he would question him on the capacity of "certain individuals co-operating together in the stock market to profit thereby at the expenses of those unable to cooperate."

Mr. Noble first was asked to describe for the benefit of the committee the organization of the stock exchange, the personnel of its management and its rules and regulations.

Will Ask Wilson Adopt Diet at 25 Cents a Day.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) New York, January 23.—Having proved that 13 hungry policemen can thrive on a 25 cent a day diet, Mrs. Eula McClary, dietician of the police diet squad here, left today for Washington to ask the president of the United States to do likewise. In addition to requesting Mr. Wilson to try a 25 cent diet day at the White House she said she would ask him to proclaim such a day for the whole nation.

"More than that, I am going to ask Miss Margaret Wilson to go shopping personally and buy the food for the White House 25 cent meal a day," Mrs. McClary declared as she started for Washington.

Her theory is that some women could cut down the cost of living by doing their own shopping, reducing delivery and other expenses for the grocers. She also hopes to prove to the country that eliminating useless food in menus would lessen the cost of living.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Columbus, January 23.—Presidents of city commissions or city managers, in cities not having mayors and councils, have judicial powers, according to decision of the supreme court today in a Sandusky case.

Fred Ide was arrested on a charge of violating the liquor laws and was fined $500 by Robert Koegle, president of the Sandusky city council, acting as head of the city government. Ide contested the fine on the grounds that Koegle did not have the power to impose a fine. The supreme court upheld Koegle.

THOMPSON'S

RISE IN RAILROAD SERVICE HAS BEEN RAPID SINCE STARTING IN 1908.

First Position Was Rodman With Surveying Party—Now is Vice President of B. & O. R. R.

Reservations are pouring in over the telephone at Chamber of Commerce headquarters for the big dinner to be held in Masonic Temple, Tuesday night, January 30, and the committee in charge expect an attendance of from 250 to 300. The speakers will be Arthur W. Thompson, vice president of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, and President C. W. Chamberlain of Denison University.

Among the prominent Baltimore and Ohio officials to be present are: O. A. Constans, freight traffic manager.

ARTHUR W. THOMPSON.

ager: P. F. Finnegan, general freight agent, Chicago; W. H. Manass, assistant to vice president, Baltimore; C. W. Galloway, general manager, and H. B. Voorhees, general superintendent of the Newark division, Cincinnati; David Hum, Jr., industrial agent, Pittsburgh; E. F. Kendall, district freight agent, Columbus; Superintendent D. F. Stevens, Newark division, and others.

The dinner will be prepared by a committee consisting of J. R. Walters and W. C. Kuster. Tickets can be obtained at Chamber headquarters and the business places of J. C. Krieg and J. F. Callander. A number of enlightening features are to be introduced during the courses. The career of Arthur W. Thompson, traffic vice president of the B. & O. System, reads like that of the heroes of Alger. Leaving Allegheny college in Meadville, Pa., in 1898, with his degree of civil engineer. Mr. Thompson obtained employment in the engineering department of the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie railroad in March that year as a rodman. He was quickly advanced to transitman on location and made a name for himself in its service.

Two years later, in 1900, he first became identified with the B. & O. railroad as chief of a survey party and a few months later received his first title, that of assistant division engineer of the Pittsburgh division. It generally takes a long time and great ability for an assistant division engineer to become chief engineer of any corporation and when the corporation is a railroad then the feat is still more difficult. Yet, the present chief traffic officer of the B. & O. made the jump within a very few years and seemingly without trouble.

His rise has been rapid. In 1904 he was superintendent at Cumberland, then in the same capacity at Wheeling, and in 1907 was elevated to chief engineer of the maintenance of way department. On April, 1910, just 10 years after entering the service of the B. & O., Mr. Thompson was chief engineer of the road.

President Willard, of the B. & O., however, was not slow in recognizing the possibilities of his new op-

After four years' in helping to modernize the pioneer road of the country and breaking records for "on time" performance, Mr. Thompson was chosen last June to head the traffic department of the system, as vice president of traffic and commercial development, the latter a new department to take care of business interests.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Collins, who resided in North Fourth street had gone to the home of their son Gray Collins to spend the winter months. Mr. Collins was taken ill with pneumonia and died Friday night. One son accompanied the body of his father to Newark, while the other members of the family remained with the mother in East Liverpool.

Court Sustains Decision Favoring Injured Workmen

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Columbus, Jan. 23.—Section 27 of the workmen's compensation law providing that employers not participating in state insurance may be sued by employees to obtain compensation verdicts made by the state industrial commission, was upheld as constitutional in a decision made this morning by the supreme court. The decision of the supreme court upholding section 27 of the workmen's compensation act was rendered in the case of Percy Fassig of Columbus against the state, an action brought by former Attorney General Turner in behalf of Frank Pond for $26,59. The industrial commission had awarded Bond that verdict. The Franklin county common pleas court rendered judgment for Fassig, holding the section of the law unconstitutional on the grounds that it deprived Fassig of jury trial. The court of appeals reversed the common pleas court and its decision is affirmed by the supreme court. The case was hotly contested.

Pipe Line Company Objects to Value Placed on Property.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Columbus, Jan. 23.—Fiftyone of the 88 county treasurers are made defendant in a suit filed in the Franklin county courts today by the Buckeye Pipe Line company, a Standard Oil subsidiary, to restrain the collection of taxes in the valuation placed on that company by the Ohio tax commission. The petition reiterates that the Buckeye company which owns oil pipe lines in nearly all of the counties of the state, reported its property to the state tax commission at $18,948,841 and that the commission increased this valuation to $35,300,000, a boost of more than $16,000,000.

The pipe line company declares this act of the tax commission was unreasonable.

DAVID OWEN

GRANVILLE TOWNSHIP FARMER DIED THIS MORNING FOLLOWING PARALYTIC STROKE.

Was Resident of Granville Vicinity for Many Years—Travelers Club Holds Interesting Meeting.

(Special to The Advocate)

Granville, Jan. 23.—The death of David R. Owen, a prominent farmer of Granville township, occurred this morning at 8:00 o'clock at the family residence on Burg street, three miles northwest of Granville, following an illness of ten days from a stroke of paralysis. Mr. Owen was 71 years of age, and for many years was a member of the Presbyterian church here. His passing is a sad loss to the entire community and his wife, his daughter and his sons have the sympathy of their friends in their bereavement. Funeral services will be held at the home on Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock, conducted by Rev. E. D. Barnes.

The itinerary of The Travelers brought them, Monday afternoon to Santos, Brazil, where they halted awhile for a general view of this country, whose area alone is greater than that of the United States. Mrs. W. E. Hopkins gave some interesting "Current Events," after which Mrs. Stickney introduced the afternoon's topics with a Brazilian proverb, to the effect that: "Good coffee must be as strong as Satan, as black as ink, as hot as hades, and as sweet as love," calling upon Mrs. August Odebrecht for her paper on "The Land of Coffee—Sao Paulo." Brazil furnishes not alone 80 per cent of the coffee imported by the United States, but three-fourths of that used by the entire world. Mrs. Odebrecht gave a graphic description of the vast coffee fields under cultivation, where the trees are not allowed to grow over six or eight feet in height. The blossoms have an exquisite perfume and the berries turned red and grow to the size of cherries. The control of syndicates from other nations has forced the price of the commodity ever upward. Miss Jennie Roe read an interesting paper on "Gems of the Land" in which many facts but dimly known before were brought to light. Diamonds, rubies, emeralds and sapphires of superior quality are found here, as well as stones of the semi-precious variety, as the tourmaline, opal, garnet, turquoise, agate, moonstone, etc., specimens of which were shown by Miss Roe—both in the rough and in articles of jewelry. Mrs. E. E. Hopkins read a brief article on Brazilian emeralds, and at the close of the program there was a spirited discussion of one of the subjects introduced in Mrs. Hopkins' Current Events, the boycott on eggs, caused by the high altitude of "Humpty Dumpty," during the winter.

The Women's Music club, whose schedule for January has been somewhat interrupted, will meet tomorrow at the home of Mrs. C. D. Coons, after which, calendar dates will be resumed. The King's Daughters find plenty of work this winter for willing hands, and they are greatly in earnest in going "about their Father's business." They have disbursed a generous fund in relief of need and suffering and are continually called upon to supply the threatened deficit. At the business meeting held on Monday evening ways and means for raising money were discussed and the membership of one hundred was divided into bands of twenty, each band to adopt any plan it deems feasible. Miss Lily Jones, the president, led the devotional service. Mrs. Ernest Shephardson the Bible study. Miss Gertrude Carpenter offered prayer. The evening was brightened by the social hour during which refreshments were served by Mrs. Smoke, Mrs. Cherry, Mrs. Cora Rose, Misses Grace and Stella Griffith. Tentative plans were made for the compiling of a book to be published in the near future. Miss Carrie Howland was elected chairman of the committee.

Miss Elizabeth Morris entertained about 20 friends at a buffet supper Monday evening at her home in West Broadway, honoring her week-end guests, Mrs. Collins, Mrs. McKean and Mrs. Rogers of Columbus. An informal recital was given by Mr. K. H. Eschman pianist, Mrs. H. R. Hundley soprano, and Dr. C. L. Williams, who read several humorous selections. Assisting the hostess were Mrs. H. R. Hundley and Mrs. August Odebrecht.

Beta Theta Pi delightfully entertained.

Says Simple Remedy Prolonged His Life

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin Effective as a Remedy for Constipation.

Among older people the various organs of the body have a tendency to slow up and weaken, and this is usually first manifest in a pronounced inactivity of the bowels.

Good health is dependent on regularity in this important function; whenever there is the slightest indication of constipation a mild laxative should be taken to relieve the congestion and dispose of the accumulated waste. Cathartics or purgatives should not be employed, however; these are too violent in action and their effect is only temporary.

A mild laxative such as the combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin, known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, is the ideal remedy. It is gentle in its action, bringing relief in an easy, natural manner, without griping or other pain or discomfort, is pleasant to the taste, and can be obtained in any drug store.

Mr. Robert LeForgee, 918 Kirkwood Boulevard, Davenport, Iowa, says he has always had a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin in the house for the past eighteen years, and that by using it occasionally as the need arises, and in this way keeping his health good, it has prolonged his life, and brought ease and comfort.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is sold by druggists everywhere, and costs only fifty cents a bottle. To avoid imitations and ineffective substitutes be sure to get Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. See that a facsimile of Dr. Caldwell's signature and his portrait appear on the yellow carton in which the bottle is packed. A trial bottle, free of charge, can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 455 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois.

"Hugger" is Still Annoying Girls On Dark Streets.

Women are being frightened in various parts of the city by men following and in some cases grabbing them, according to reports coming from different sources. Thus far there has been no serious consequences but the police are doing their best to break up the practice by apprehending any guilty person. In all cases the darkness has rendered it almost impossible to get a definite description of the assailant, especially from women often frightened to the verge of hysteria.

Recently a plucky young woman with her companions were between Fifth and Sixth on Church street, and a man who had been following them took hold of her. All three screamed, arousing the neighbors and the fellow ran.

Though the police were called promptly no trace of the man could be found. The young woman denies the story that she stabbed the man three times with a penknife.

AUDITORIUM.
Mary Pickford.

Manager Penberg sure has been busy answering the question—When is Mary Pickford coming? She is here today. "Less Than Dust" would have been shown sooner, but owing to previous bookings it has been put off until today and it will be hailed with delight by her hosts of admirers in this city. She will not only be seen in a new picture, the largest and most elaborate production that has ever been made for her, but her coming will be all the more interesting because she is now at the head of her own film corporation and is giving her artistic advice and guidance to every detail of the making of the picture in which she is exhibited. Mary Pickford will be seen in "Less Than Dust," written by Hector Turnbull, who has not only given her an ideal character for her to portray but one that will give great play for all of the delightful blend of comedy and pathos, the winsomeness and the charm of girlishness that has ever marked her screen creations. John Emerson has given the play a masterly direction and nothing has been spared to make it the supreme product of the best brains and skill of this art industry.

The scenes are laid in India and England and are reproduced on a scale of effectiveness and a perfection of detail which will be new to the motion picture stage. Mary Pickford will be seen as a little orphan girl of English birth who, left alone in a city of India, is adopted by a native sword maker and is reared among the lower caste and is consequently regarded as being "less than the dust." During an uprising of the natives the British garrison is attacked and the girl rescues a young officer. Later it is discovered that she is of good birth and the officer wins her heart. As the little girl of the natives Mary Pickford is seen in some of her best comedy work. The picture abounds in big scenes that carry real thrill, among them being the battle, the desecration of the temple with its great pool of sacred waters, a storm on a desert and the meeting of the natives in the forge of the sword maker. The cast is one of prominence and more than two hundred and fifty people appear in the various scenes. Special music has been written for this production.

The showings will be continuous from one p. m. until closing time and a special inducement is made to "Mary's" little kid friends, who will be admitted between the hours of 4 and 5 p. m. for a nickel. "Less Than Dust" will be screened at the Auditorium today and tomorrow.

"Is Any Girl Safe?"

For Friday at the Auditorium Manager Penberg has an unusual picture feature in "Is Any Girl Safe?" This feature was shown in Columbus a few weeks ago to capacity audiences and the verdict of all who saw it—Best ever. It is a tremendous, Five-Part Photo-Drama, clean throughout yet telling an amazing story of a world of wide evil. There is nothing overdrawn about "Is Any Girl Safe?" the picture is not merely a story; it is a sort of picturized editorial and sermon rolled into one, and it has accomplished a great deal of good wherever screened. The displays will begin at one-thirty and will be continuous during the supper hour, etc.

"Who's Little Girl are You?"

"Who's Little Girl are You?" sounds musical and pleasing and from all reports the title seems a happy selection in drawing crowds of theatre goers wherever presented. The Blanchard Amusement Company were quick to see the value of this title for a musical comedy and in offering the attraction this season have selected a company of real musical comedy people who can sing, dance and act, and with all the embellishments of handsome costumes, superb scenery and a first-class production in every detail. The usual chorus has not been overlooked for no musical show can succeed without no musical show can succeed without of just girls, but the one presented in "Who's Little Girl are You?" is the modern up-to-date girl, who can sing and dance and keep up with a company of first-class principals and altogether making one grand artistic effort full of music, bright clean comedy and lots of color pleasing to the eye. This attraction will be presented at prices that do not conflict with the high cost of living, but one that will satisfy every purchaser of a ticket and is a sure "Get your money's worth kind."

The engagement is for Matinee and Night at the Auditorium next Saturday.

"Pat White's Gaiety Girls."

In the race for success in the musical field this season the pace will be set by Pat White and his Gaiety Girls company, which will be the attraction at the Auditorium theatre next Monday, matinee and night. This show, without doubt, is the most meritorious and original that has ever been organized to tour the burlesque circuit. "The Frolicsome Festival" and "Casey at the Convention" are the titles of the two musical burlesques which this company will present. It is brimful of son hits, surprises and many funny complicated situations. This organization is headed by Pat White himself and a company of clever comedians and exceptionally pretty girls. Pat White to be featured. Seats ready Thursday.

My Home Town Girl.

Manager Penberg of the Auditorium announces the engagement of Hyman and McIntyre in "My Home Town Girl" for matinee and evening on Wednesday, January 31st. This is one of the treats of the season as no other two co-stars were ever more popular than Hyman and McIntyre of "The Girl of My Dreams" fame, who subsequently became headliners in Orpheum vaudeville. The fact that they have left vaudeville and are appearing in another musical comedy vehicle that is the equal, if not better than their former success, will be welcome news to all theatregoers. They will be seen at the Auditorium January 31st, matinee and night, in Perry J. Kelly's latest musical offering "My Home Town Girl," written by Frank Stammers with music by Louis A. Hirsch. Well known people in the cast are Henryetta Lee, Maude Beatty, Doris Vernon, Clarence Grey, Roy Parviance, Maurice Dacey and Jack Hall. A bevy of pretty girls who can sing and dance, together with elaborate scenery and the company's own symphony orchestra, contribute to the attractiveness of the piece.

Mail orders will be received now.

"Gypsy Love's" Versatile Star.

In all light opera history there probably never has been a role of such difficulty as that of the gypsy "Toski," principal character of the Lehar romantic operette "Gypsy Love," coming to the Auditorium soon. Arthur Albro, the gifted young tenor who will be seen in the role here is its creator. A change never has been considered because there likely are not more than two other men on the American stage who could meet the part's onerous exactions. In the first place the difficult Lehar music would stagger any other than an opera tenor blessed with a rare voice. Then the gypsy must be a marvel of the dance. Next, none but the most finished actor could ever interpret the unusual character—and he must be as handsome as a young god. Add to that the requirement of being able to play a violin like a virtuoso while he is in the mad mazes of the dance and you have Albro's qualifications pretty well covered.

ALHAMBRA.

Wednesday and Thursday.

Special arrangements were made with the most exclusive modiste in the country whereby a number of scenes could be taken in her establishment for the latest World release, "The Rise of Susan."

The star of the piece, Clara Kimball Young, wears several new and striking gown creations during the story which will be the feature at the Alhambra theatre on Wednesday and Thursday.

The scenery throughout "The Scarlet Runner," Vitagraph's Mystery series, and particularly in "The Missing Chapter," is typical of England. There is not a flaw in locations for thousands of dollars were spent to make this picture a super serial in every way. The story is from the novel of the same name by those famed story-tellers C. N. and A. M. Williamson and features the celebrated Vitagraph star, Earle Williams. This series is shown at the Alhambra Theatre every Wednesday and Thursday. Popular Edith Storey plays the feminine lead in "The Missing Chapter."

GEM.

Tomorrow.

The picture is one dealing with a subject which Theodore Roosevelt made a universal topic but a few years ago, and which, with the realization of what the present European strife means toward the depopulation of the nations at war, again becomes a subject of decidedly timely interest. Through its entire six reels, there is ever prevalent the subject of mother love, the beauty of its anticipation and the almost horror in the ultimate disappointment; the ever-ruling animal instincts and passions of the male of the species and his disregard for issue, bordering upon a near hatred.

Here are two red-blooded, virile young people, loving one another and marrying. The plea of the wife that her young one might be spoiled by the cares of the baby, that in the after years there will be time enough for issue; until fate takes its part and decrees that the tomorrow of childbirth can never come.

Race Suicide has been produced upon a lavish scale with a cast of exceptional magnitude. Through its entire action Ormi Hawley and Earl Metcalfe are cast as leads with Kempton Greene, Octavia Handworth, Herbert Fortier and Hazel Hubbard in their support, and a number of minor characters. Gem tomorrow.

THE GRAND.

The World and the Woman.

The feature at the Grand Theatre, on Wednesday, is the Pathe Gold Wooster Play, "The World and the Woman," with beautiful Jeanne Eagles as the star. It is an unusual, absorbing study of the soul of a woman of the streets. The story grips you from the start, and it will sound a responsive note in your heart that will make you feel a new sympathy for those less fortunate than yourself who must win the battle for existence at any cost. A tip-top man's wager brings the girl as a servant to the mountain bungalow of a Broadway spendthrift. There the clean air, the trees and flowers bring her to the realization that there is a God. With the return of self-respect she is given a wonderful power of understanding and sympathy. Her faith leads to faith in others, and she comes to be regarded as almost an angel. Then the man reveals what she has been. How will it end? Can she again climb up the social ladder? You will want her to with all your heart.

Here is an extract from a letter written to Mr. Philip Longear by Harry Holt Der, president of the Newark Press club of New York City. "I am a prominent Christian Scientist, who saw the picture at a private showing. The memory of 'The World and the Woman' clings to me constantly. I am sure you do not fully realize the strength of the work you have done. It is a deeply interesting story, well acted, well produced and well directed. It will hold the attention of everybody, no matter of what belief."

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-colored tablets.

These pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel, but to let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Most headaches, "dullness," and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "lousy" and "heavy." Note how they "clear" clouded brain and how they "perk up" the spirits. 10c and 25c a box. All druggists.

Dandruff Surely Destroys The Hair

Girls—if you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't. It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips. By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.

La Partida (The Departure) Amelita Galli-Curci
Victor Red Seal Record 74500. Twelve-inch, $1.50

The recent debut of Galli-Curci in Rigoletto with the Chicago Opera Company was the occasion of the most spontaneous outbursts of enthusiasm and applause which have been repeated with increasing fervor on her every appearance. Possessed of a wonderful voice of velvety softness and purity, this new coloratura soprano established herself at once as a star of the first magnitude.

It was to be expected that an artist with such accomplishments would choose to be identified with the illustrious company of famous artists who make records for the Victor exclusively. The two records now presented are so true to life that they are arousing the same unbounded enthusiasm among music-lovers everywhere as was accorded her actual performances on the operatic stage.

You can have the pleasure of hearing these new Galli-Curci records at any Victor dealer's. He will gladly play any music you wish to hear and demonstrate the various styles of the Victor and Victrola—$10 to $400.

Dandruff Surely Destroys The Hair

Girls—if you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't. It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips. By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.

NO NEED TO FEAR BALDNESS

Tells How to Make Hair Grow Thick and Lustrous on Bald and Thin Spots.

Thousands of men and women are growing bald every day and don't know the reason why. This is indeed a pity, says a hair specialist, who states that baldness usually comes from careless combing, and that anyone who gives the hair just a little attention should always have an abundance of good, healthy hair. Lard and dirt cause baldness by clogging the pores in the scalp, and giving the dandruff germs fertile ground for prolific breeding. The treatment is very simple: remove the dirt by shampooing at least once in ten days and destroy the dandruff germs by frequently applying a little of the real Parisian Sage, a most efficient preparation that the best druggists everywhere are now recommending as one of the quickest and safest treatments to surely stop itching scalp and falling hair, remove all dandruff and to properly nourish and invigorate the hair roots.

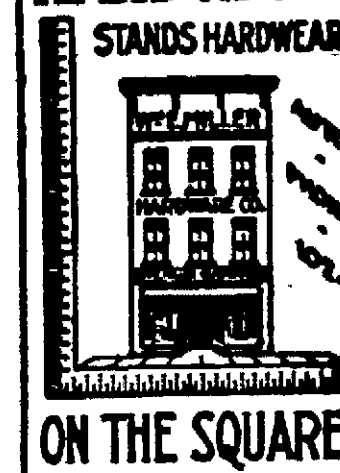

Parisian Sage is also the discriminating woman's favorite hair dressing because it gives her hair a softness and lustre that fascinates and compels admiration. A generous bottle costs but little from W. L. Herman, who guarantees it to you.

A dose before retiring will assure you a full and easy movement in the morning. 25c. at your Druggist.—Advertisement.

An Ideal of Peace.

In addressing the Senate as he did yesterday President Wilson spoke of the warring governments of Europe in a manner that can give them no offense and to more effective purpose than if he had gone directly to them, observes the Republican Pittsburgh Gazette-Times. The President could not say to the Entente Allies or to the Central Powers what he said to the Senate. But what he said was intended for their ears more than it was for those of the American people, and though they will take no formal notice of it, we may be sure they will give careful thought to the principles which the President so plainly stated. And they must be impressed with his opinions, for they are sound sense, in the main. There will be no more notes from Washington, for which we can be thankful, until the belligerent countries give some sign that they are ready to listen to reason or invite the mediation which the United States always will be ready to undertake.

Auditor of State Vic Donahay's suggestion for greater economy in the purchase of pencils, pens and incidentals was rejected by the House of Representatives but such action will not work great injury to Mr. Donahay who has proved to be about the best man who ever held the reins in the State Auditor's office.

Col. W. C. Wells has been acting upon The Advocate's advice to feed the birds while the ground is covered with ice and snow. This morning Col. Wells had the pleasure of seeing twenty beautiful redbirds taking breakfast in his dooryard in West Newark.

It is alleged that a German raider called has been flying the American flag. If it is true it indicates good taste, to say the least.

Francis Wilson is to take unto himself a wife. Rather a serious business for a comedian, isn't it?

Ever True to George.

(New York Evening Post.)
Whatever happens, the Colonel's heart is true to Perkins. The latter's blast against the peripatetic Republican Old Guard meets with unqualified approval at Oyster Bay. It is, declares the Colonel, a "great service to the American people." But Perkins is always rendering that service, no matter what he does. Whether he splits the 1912 or fuses in 1916, his fellow-countrymen are alike in his debt. If he dines harmoniously with the Republican committee he is doing a great service, and if he goes hungry outside he is also doing it. Fighting or combining is all one to the Colonel, so long as it is Perkins who does it. But in Washington Republican leaders are a good deal worked up by the evidence that the Colonel and Perkins are spoiling for another fight with the party. Some of them are indignant. The two Republican committeemen Adams, of their State, whom Perkins bitterly denounces as a reactionary, is every whit as good a Progressive as Perkins himself. But can anybody really be that? If another citizen has progressed in so many and such contradictory ways as George W. Perkins, he has done it under a bushel.

Manufacturing In the Dark.

(Milwaukee Journal.)
Edward N. Hurley, recently chairman of the Federal Trade Board, whose experience as a manufacturer and on the business commission in Washington, has entitled him to speak with authority, asserts that 90 per cent. of the American manufacturers do not know what it costs them to make goods. He maintains that their prices are based on the rates of the man around the corner, who may be headed toward bankruptcy.

rupter at the rate of 60 miles per minute.

This statement by anyone less than a business authority would be almost unbelievable. With the emphasis now placed on cost accounting, with expert statisticians giving cost figures from day to day in a large number of progressive plants, it seems amazing that this first fundamental, knowing the cost of one's product has not been insisted on by American business men. How can manufacturers talk about their head of a tariff without a dependable cost sheet? What is the use of talking about a higher tariff, or any tariff, if American business men are bungling along in the dark, ignorant of the first principles of business success?

The stakes are big. With some $5,000,000,000 of export trade and $45,000,000,000 of domestic business, the opportunity is here for making the opportunity is here for making American trade aggregate $100,000,000,000 in five or ten years. The wise counsel now provided by the Federal Trade Commission, interested only in constructive work for trade, will go far toward reaching this impressive total in the minimum time.

Trials of a Would-Be Boss.

(Philadelphia Record.)

As a great political leader prepared to crush the Republican party into smithereens if its National Committee fails to act as ordered, George W. Perkins seems to be treading a path beset with many difficulties. It will be recalled that when he attempted to put the Progressives in his pocket and vote them for Hughes there was a prolonged roar, and he admonished thus results disastrous to the polls, with his threat now to disrupt the Republicans and organize a new party unless he can have his way about the make-up of the National Committee is having equally disturbing effects. So at least we learn from The New York Tribune, which is ready to worship at the shrine of Theodore, but can't stomach George. According to its Washington correspondent there is great opposition to the check book angel in his new role among the Republican members of Congress. "George W. Perkins," he says, "must be made to understand that he is not the boss of the Republican party, that he can't control it, and that if a meeting of the full committee is called it will not be because he wants it."

We are further told that there is a wide and deep suspicion that "Mr. Perkins has too many personal ambitions of his own to be allowed anything like a free hand. His motives are under suspicion, or at least under harsh scrutiny."

Undeterred by such calumnies, Mr. Perkins refers pleasantly to members of the Republican National Committee as "a bunch of cold-blooded political pirates," and continues his plans to launch a new party if he is not allowed to have his own way. And in this he is backed up by the Colonel, Hiram Johnson and other high priests of the once Progressive faith. It is a very pretty quarrel in its opening stages. The outcome will show whether or not the party Mr. Perkins is to be the national boss of the sadly disorganized Republicans.

MELTING POT

The mind ought sometimes to be amused, that it may the better return to thought, and to itself.—Phaedrus.

Going To Walk.
She is a frigid woman, and she is springing, does Mrs. Pasteur. For she is stout, and says: "My husband, I hate to see food go to waste."

She then her portly form enclosed in bands of bone and steel. "My son," I said, "does that reduce the waste?" She answered me: "Of course does."

Gottmine Loves Willie.

Dear Melting Pot:
I wish to congratulate you on the success of your birthday party, also to thank you for the pleasure it has given me in knowing that I was one of the prize winners. The contributions were good, every one of them, and the only thing I am sorry for, is that Forget It failed to get in the money; her effort was fine, subject timely, right to the point and told in a catchy, fetching manner. In regard to myself, my prize was as nothing compared to the fine tribute paid me by Willie Getit. A compliment like this has a value far above an ordinary money consideration, and I wish to say so that every reader may read it, and in genuine Melting Pot logic, I love Willie Getit, like a mouse loves cheese.

I. Gottmine.

Aunt Caline Says:
I was down to Gotta Nuff's to see a new pair of twins, they've just got an' while I was there Gotta's little boy, Will B., he come in an' walks up to the bed where he looks long at the two twins an' then he walks over to where his mother is an' an' looks at her an' says he, "An' you was mad at my kitty," he says.

A Newark's Man's Mistake.

The Fourth street car was standing at its downtown terminal a few evenings since, apparently quite tame and contented. But the man who alighted from a car on the Main street line, in the hope of boarding the northbound car, knew that under this calm exterior there lurked a restive disposition, and that his only hope lay in swift action. Consequently, the big six-footer, with an anxious eye on the car, grabbed his featherweight wife by the arm and swept her forward with such mighty strides that she only touched the high places. As he saw that he was going to make it, relief spread over his face, and he looked down at his wife, to find that it was not his wife, but a perfect stranger that he had seized in his haste!

Oh, Grate!
A tired and cadaverous snail said, "You see I am not very alert; but, say, you just wait! I'll my carcass inflame! When the bull players go back to abate!"

A preacher slams Dr. Felix Adler for saying there isn't any hell. We have always thought of hell as hell should be made optional, those who like it being allowed to have it.—Don Marquis in New York Evening Sun.

It's Coming in Ohio.
Say, Mr. Legislators,

And give the girls a chance.

We are most anxious, sir, indeed, to give the girls a chance; but won't they, when they get the reins.

Next want to wear the—however, in our own family we do not intend to surrender until compelled by force of circumstances.

Did You Know
That the barometer was invented by Evangelista Torricelli, a Florentine, and pupil of Galileo? Pascal improved it in 1648, and from that period great improvements have been effected by various scientific men. Wheel barometers were contrived in 1668; pendant barometers in 1695; and marine barometers in 1700.

Bird Contest.
Robert Burns was another poet who loved birds. He wrote:

O stay, sweet warbling woodlark, stay,
Nor quit me for the trembling spray,
A hapless lover courts thy lay,
Thy soothing fond complaining.

The world would be sadly lacking in melody and in beauty if the birds were exterminated. Have you not at some time noted something of special interest connected with the birds that have come under your observation? Write it out and send it to the Melting Pot as a contribution to this week's contest. The Advocate will pay one dollar for the one considered best. Contributions should be short and should reach this office not later than Friday, January 26.

Pointed Paragraphs

Abusing the President is a pretty poor way of helping the Belgians.—Charleston News and Courier.

It would be disheartening to hear it seriously suggested that the Ger-

When in 1876, four railroads, the P. C. C. & St. L., Newark, Somerset & Straitsville, Sandusky, Mansfield and Newark, and Cleveland, Mt. Vernon and Delaware that ran into Licking county paid annual taxes of only $15,628.13.

When the coal dealers of Newark in 1875, who were Walter M. Smith, Joseph White, A. Bader, John McNamara, C. D. Miller, E. J. Maurath, and the Newark Coal company, entered an agreement to sell coal only for cash?

When John Koos had a billiard parlor and lunch room where Meier & White now have the Bazaar cafe? When George B. Smythe, father of E. G. Smythe, and H. D. Sprague, father of George B. Joseph, and Miss Mary Sprague were in partnership in the practice of law?

Bill Would Stop Importation of Liquor Into W. Va.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Charleston, Jan. 23.—A bill aimed to stop the importation of intoxicating liquor into the state was today introduced in the West Virginia Senate and House of Delegates. The bill would make it a misdemeanor for any person to bring into the state more than one quart of liquor during a period of thirty days. Common carriers knowingly permitting a violation of the act would be liable to a fine of not less than $200. Since West Virginia became a prohibition state, large quantities of intoxicating liquors have been brought into the state from Maryland and Kentucky, special trains having been run for that purpose by some of the railroads.

Rise of River Is Stopped By Cold No Flood Danger.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Pittsburgh, Jan. 23.—With a decided slackening in the rise of the Monongahela and Allegheny rivers here early today it was believed that the high point of the flood which resulted from heavy rains on melting snow Sunday had been reached. At an early hour today the government gauge showed a stage of 25.5 feet, 3.5 feet flood stage. At the United States weather bureau it was stated that the crest of the flood apparently had been reached.
Lower sections of Pittsburgh were still under water early today. Many industrial plants along the rivers were flooded with water and operations were suspended. Nearly 4,000 workers were out of employment today on account of the flood in McKeesport, a suburb.

TO BUILD SHIPS AT COST PRICE

Bethlehem Steel Will Make Offer to Uncle Sam.

BIDS ON 16 INCH NAVY SHELLS

No Chance For Profit in Them Under Present Tests, Grace Says—Possible Explanation of the Prices Made by an English Firm Which Bids Under All American Manufacturers.

Speaking recently before the Terrapin Club of Philadelphia, Eugene G. Grace, President of the Bethlehem Steel Company, said in part:

In a peculiar sense Bethlehem Steel serves the American people. For example, though we have been able to obtain in Europe almost any price, we have adhered, in our charges to the United States Government, to the basis of prices established before the war began.

We agreed—if the Government would abandon its plans for a Federal plant—to make armor for our Navy at any price the Government itself might consider fair.

Our ordinance plants are at the disposal of the nation at a fair operating cost, plus a small margin, thus saving the Government investment and depreciation.

One of the special needs of the new navy is sixteen-inch guns—guns sixty feet long and capable of hurling a 2000 pound shell with such power and accuracy as to hit a 50 foot square target fifteen miles away.

We have undertaken voluntarily to construct, at a cost of $4,500,000, a plant fitted to build sixteen-inch guns. Under no conceivable circumstances can orders which we may receive for this plant pay even a fair return on the investment.

Considerable comment has been made upon the fact that a British manufacturer recently bid less than American manufacturers for sixteen and fourteen-inch shells for the navy.

I am unable to state the basis upon which the English bid was made. It should be remembered, however, that this bid was for a specific shell, samples of which are being sent over for test—a test not yet made.

Two years ago we took an order for 240 sixteen-inch armor-piercing shells at a contract price of $768,000. To be delivered within a certain time or we had to pay a large penalty.

The only specifications for making these shells are that they shall be of a certain size and must pierce armor-plate at a certain velocity on impact. It is impossible to foretell the exact conditions of the tests.

We had made large quantities of shells in the past which had been accepted. But in placing this particular order the Department altered the angle at which the tested shells must pierce armor-plate. The result, however, has been absolute inability on our part to produce in any quantity, shells which will meet these novel tests. In fact, we know of no process of projectile-making through which it is possible to produce in quantities shells which will conform to the requirements.

The result is that up to now on that contract of $768,000, we have put into actual operating expense $447,881, and have been penalized for non-delivery $495,744, a total of $943,625, with no receipts whatever.

Such was the experience in the light of which we were called upon recently to bid for sixteen-inch shells.

We bid on these shells at approximately the same rate per pound as that of a fourteen-inch shell contract of one year ago upon which the Government awarded contracts.

We have not the slightest idea what profit there will be in the making of these shells. We do not know that there will be any. There is no certainty that it would be possible for us to deliver a shell to meet the test.

For officers in the Navy to assume that any bid made under such conditions is "exorbitant" is utterly unfair.

We bid on the new battle-cruisers guns which Navy department experts, after examination of our books, found would yield a profit of less than ten per cent. We agreed to assume risks for increased costs of materials and labor, that made it possible that these contracts might yield no profit whatever.

The costs run beyond the amount appropriated by Congress on the basis of the cost estimates made a year ago.

And because shipbuilders could not alter the inexorable cost facts and reduce bids to early estimates of the Navy Department, the prices are called "exorbitant."

It would be a real advantage to be relieved of this naval construction. The profit from it cannot possibly amount to much, and the responsibility is enormous.

We have determined to make this offer to the American Government.

"If you will build two of the battle cruisers in Government navy yards we will build the other two at the estimated cost of building the ships in the Government yards, without additional expense or commissions of any kind. We will also contract to have our ships ready for service ahead of the Government ships."

Some people hate to take advice, even when they pay for it.

RICHARD SHIDE DIES SUDDENLY IN BARN YARD

Richard A. Shide, who for 51 years has resided on a farm in the Cherry Valley and who is one of the better known of the older residents, died at his home, Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

In November Mr. and Mrs. Shide celebrated their fifty-eighth wedding anniversary and Mr. Shide had been in excellent health. On Monday afternoon about four o'clock he went to the barn to do the evening feeding. Mrs. Shide was in the kitchen and shortly after, on looking out in the yard, saw Mr. Shide on his hands and knees. Fearing he had fallen on the ice she hastened to his side and when she reached him he was prostrate on the ground. Mr. Schaus who was repairing a stove in the kitchen assisted her in carrying him to the house but life was extinct before he could be placed on a couch. Dr. W. B. Nye was called and said death was due to heart trouble.

Richard A. Shide was born near Berlin, Germany, Nov. 20, 1832. When he came to this country in 1854 he made the trip across the ocean in a sail boat. The journey consumed six weeks. He landed at Quebec and went to Danville, Ky., where his brother Rudolf Shide was a Presbyterian minister. After spending a few years there he came to Newark, and was engaged in this city for a number of years as a brewer.

On November 18, 1858, he was united in marriage to Miss Catherine Stough, the wedding taking place in Newark. Rev. Mr. Kissel officiating. He is survived by his wife, who is 78 years old, and five children. Miss Kate Shide of the home, Mrs. William Davis of Columbus, Mrs. Emma Crooks of Granville, Frank Shide of Newark and Mrs. Clara Morris of the home, and four grandchildren.

In 1909 Mr. and Mrs. Shide celebrated their golden wedding anniversary and in November they informally celebrated their fifty-eighth wedding anniversary.

From Newark Mr. and Mrs. Shide moved to their farm in the Cherry Valley where they have resided for fifty-one years.

Mr. Shide was a prominent member of the Presbyterian church, being an elder in the old German Presbyterian church and following its dissolution became affiliated with the Second Presbyterian church, where he held the office of elder for a number of years, until he felt his age incapacitated him and he resigned. He was a member of the Modern Woodmen of America.

The funeral services will be held on Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the home, Rev. Don Tullis, pastor of the Second Presbyterian church officiating. Interment will be made in Cedar Hill cemetery.

HENRY SCHEIDLER IS DEAD; MANAGED FIRST CAR SYSTEM

Henry R. Scheidler, president and general manager of the Newark Machine works died at his home, 139 South Third street, Tuesday morning at 6 o'clock. Mr. Scheidler has been in failing health for the past several months and on Sunday evening he was stricken with paralysis, from which he never rallied and death came Tuesday morning.

The deceased was the son of the late Reinhard and Dorothea Scheidler, and was born in Newark, August 4, 1868. He was associated with his father in the Scheidler Machine works and when Reinhard Scheidler originated and made possible the first electric car line in Newark his son was associated with him and was superintendent of the Newark & Granville company as it was known until it was disposed of to outside interests. This line was the seventeenth interurban line to be operated in the United States and the first to carry U. S. mail.

After the disposal of the electric railway, Mr. Scheidler returned to the machine works where he succeeded his father and where he was president and general manager at the time of his death. He was also treasurer of the Peoples Market and was a member of the Newark Lodge of Elks.

The funeral services will be held at the home, 139 South Third street, Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

King Building Is Purchased By Roe Emerson

Announcement was made late yesterday that the contract for the sale of the property known as the King building, in South Third street, near Main, to Roe Emerson, had been signed and that the deed would be executed as soon as certain legal matters can be disposed of. The deal was made by J. F. Moore & Son, real estate agent.

The building was a part of the O. G. King estate and has been owned by Mr. King and his heirs for nearly 40 years. It is 15 feet in width and 200 feet in depth, extending to the alley in the rear. This building has been occupied by a King shoe store and hat store for more than 40 years and is one of the landmarks of the business district. It is said the consideration was $27,000.

PARTITION OF KING ESTATE IS ASKED FOR

A deed in partition was filed in common pleas court to partition the real estate left by the late O. G. King, who died February 20, 1892. The petitioners are children of the deceased Mrs. Amy Everett, Daisy King Holliday, Oren G. King, and Fred H. King, and they recite that O. G. King left the real estate described to his widow Blanche King during her life and at her death to the children of the marriage; that the widow of O. G. King died Sept. 4, 1916, and the petitioners are next of kin and sole heirs-at-law under the will. The petitioners pray that the real estate be partitioned and if that cannot be done equitably that it be sold and the proceeds divided.

POULTRY SHOW COMPLETE SUCCESS

At a regular meeting of the board of directors of the Newark Fanciers' Association company held at the office of Secretary Joseph Evans in Church street last night, reports were made relative to the recent poultry show, and it was found that the show had been a financial success and that substantial payment could be made upon the fine exhibition coop recently bought by the association.

It was a general expression of all members present last night that the success of the poultry show this year was largely due to the interest, influence and co-operation of the Chamber of Commerce and its various bureaus as well as the splendid help and enthusiasm exhibited by the Licking County Fish and Game Society which was obtained through the kindness of W. W. Gard, as it was through Mr. Gard and the Licking County Fish and Game Society that the state exhibit was obtained.

At the meeting last night special recognition was also given Frank Woolard for the exhibition of his stock which is one of the most remarkable of its kind in the state. Arrangements are now being made for the annual meeting of stockholders of the Newark Fanciers' Association company, which will be held on Friday night, February 9th, when officers and a board of directors will be elected. Plans are already being made to have even a larger and better show next year than the recent one which was so well patronized.

Dog Team in Run Through Drifts Over 522-Mi. Course

St. Paul, Minn., January 23.—Heavy snow drifts, reported on the route over which the Winnipeg-St. Paul dog race will be run, starting tomorrow will make it necessary for the drivers to beat a path through the deeper drifts with their snow shoes. The route for the race, as officially mapped out is 522 miles long. Drawings for positions will take place in Winnipeg tonight. In addition to the prizes offered to the winners by the St. Paul Carnival Association under whose auspices the race is to be run, the Louis W. Hill medal, carrying with it the title of champion, will be given the winning driver. The last of the 18 entrants is Charles Clark, a Cree Indian, who has a record of 80 miles a day behind his dog team.

AN EXPERT ON COLDS

Comparatively few people realize that a cold is a sign of physical weakness. To treat a cold with weakening physics, alcoholic syrups or drugged pills, may smother the cold but they also reduce the body powers still further and invite more serious sickness. Scott's Emulsion has always been an expert on colds, because it peculiarly enriches the blood, quickly tones up the forces and strengthens both throat and chest. Try Scott's. Refuse Substitutes.

Good Dividend Records

If you have surplus funds waiting to be invested at a profit, you should investigate our long and successful record as specialists in tax-free, 7% preferred stocks.

The stocks we recommend in our current offerings are seasoned securities with unbroken dividend records. They represent the healthy growth of established industries, and not the future hopes or expectations of new enterprises, launched hastily at the crest of national prosperity.

If conservatism and regard for future safety dictate your judgments, it will pay you to study these offerings in detail. For example, as a safeguard against dividend interruptions in hard times, a special surplus is provided sufficient to pay dividends to the preferred stockholders for two years.

We have booklets and financial statements describing these securities in detail, and will be glad to send them to you on application—without placing you under any obligation to buy from us.
